

I fully oppose any proposal that would compromise the effectiveness of Indiana's Telephone Privacy law in any way. I used to receive at least 10 calls per week and now I receive one call (at most) per week. The reduction of annoying, unsolicited calls has improved the valuable time I have at home with my family.